Biodata - Heather Buchanan

Heather Buchanan is an experienced teacher trainer and English language teacher. She has taught English in France, Germany, Japan and the UK, and has experience of teaching General English, EAP, ESP and One to One classes. She has written published materials for primary and junior high schools, for teacher development, for examination boards as well as numerous in-house materials for schools and universities. She currently leads a Cambridge Delta and Masters course in the North of England. She is particularly interested in speaking and listening skills, in teacher development and in materials writing.