

tried out. Carry on adding more people to the image. Do you decide to make each new person more important than the last? or add to the importance of another?
another version getting people involved is to ask one person to move or sculpt another into the image...

Final Task

image as text

drawing on the ideas of the initial hand gesture and the techniques of human sculpting, create a powerful still image that evokes the theme and expression in the picture.

share and discuss

could your picture have a slogan? poster design?

Plenary

discuss

how to question/debrief a group